

Jesus cured the sick and the lame. He made the blind see again. He also brought a boy and a girl back from the dead. Jesus wanted to show the people that He was God by doing what only God can do.

Jesus loved to have little children about Him. When the apostles tried to keep them from Him, for fear they would be in His way, Jesus said, "Let the little children come to Me, for of such is the kingdom of heaven."